

George Thomaidis
Coral A.E. General Manager

George Thomaidis has graduated as a Chemical engineer from Athens Technical University, and holds a PhD in chemical engineering from Rice University of Houston, Texas. He joined Shell in 1987 and held various positions in marine, lubricants, finance planning and commercial fuels, both in Shell Hellas and Shell International. From 2002 to 2006 he was the Retail manager for the Mediterranean region, covering Italy, Greece and Bulgaria, and, since the beginning of 2007, he was a member of the Group's strategy and portfolio team. On the 1st of January 2009 he was appointed Country Chair of Shell in Greece a position he held together with his position in strategy and portfolio as GM Portfolio Projects. Since July 1st 2010, when Motor Oil acquired the Shell businesses in Greece, George holds the position of General Manager for Coral A.E. (former Shell Hellas A.E.). He is also a member of the Coral A.E. and Coral Gas A.E.B.E.Y. Board of Directors.