

Jean-François Etienne

Chairman & Managing Director of Unilever South East Europe (SEE)

Jean Francois Etienne was born in Neuilly-Sur-Seine in France. He holds a BA in Sales and Marketing from the Institut Supérieur de Gestion, in Paris. He started his career in Colgate Palmolive at executive positions in sales and marketing and later at Hill's Pet Nutrition as General Manager and at Nestle as VP, Global Customers Development Director.

In 2009 he joined Unilever in France as Vice President Customer Development, while at the same time he was a member of the European Sales Leadership Team. From 2013 until August 2017 he was Managing Director of Unilever Maghreb, responsible for the markets of Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Libya and Mauritania.

From September 2017 onwards, he is the Chairman & Managing Director of Unilever South East Europe (SEE) responsible for Greece, Cyprus, Albania, FYROM and Kosovo with Headquarters in Athens, Greece.

He is married and has 3 children.